

Argentina Teaching in Buenos Aires

Help to defeat poverty as you educate the local children in the incredible city of Buenos Aires.

Help a local community defeat poverty by helping educate and care for the local children in the incredible city of Buenos Aires. Working alongside local teachers you will become integrated into daily life, enjoying local delicacies such as cheese and meat pastries, or chicha, the sacred corn drink of the Incas. In your evenings you can try learning some dance moves such as the tango, the national dance, with your Argentine colleagues or brush up on your conversational Spanish. Visit a country steeped in mystery and take a piece of the culture home with you in the form of lifelong friendships.

Argentina is without a doubt one of the most fascinating destinations for a gap year or year out. It is a country with an enthralling blend of European culture against the magical heritage of Latin America. Here you will find some of the tallest mountains in the world, the most expansive deserts, and the greatest and most impressive waterfalls. Experience this enchanting destination, whilst making a significant contribution to the development of deprived local communities.

FAST FACTS

Location	Buenos Aires, Argentina
Activities	Teaching Community education
Transport	Transport to & from the airport
Accommodation	Shared volunteer house

WHAT DOES THE PROJECT DO?

In an ever-shrinking world, the need for multilingual individuals is greater than ever. To help rid the world of poverty and inequality, it is essential that underprivileged communities benefit from improved levels of education. Volunteers play an important role in strengthening the understanding and cooperation between cultures, crucial to moving forward as a global community. Learning another language, sharing your experiences, and helping those less fortunate will leave a lasting legacy to the world and ensure that the common goal of international development can occur.

WHAT WILL I BE DOING?

Teaching English as a foreign language to sometimes underprivileged and impoverished children on a daily basis is as rewarding and enjoyable for you as it is for them. By teaching these children, you are equipping them with the tools they need to liberate or prevent themselves from entering the cycle of deprivation that they may be held in. You will work for approximately four hours a day in primary and secondary schools, with enough free time to absorb the fascinating sights and sounds of cosmopolitan Buenos Aires. Your pupils will benefit hugely from the interactive and fun teaching style that TEFL training introduces. Completing your practical training in Argentina contributes to an achievement that will last you a lifetime and potentially lead to other exciting and valuable opportunities.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN I ARRIVE?

You will be collected at the airport by the project staff and escorted to your accommodation. Upon arrival you will be given time to settle in and get used to your new surroundings, receive an introduction to the project work and the expectations, and possibly explore a little of the local area.

WHERE WILL I BE STAYING?

You will be staying in a shared volunteer and student house. This is the perfect opportunity to get to know your fellow volunteers and travellers, spend time together when you are not working, and build the kind of friendships and experiences that stay with you for life.

WHAT WILL I BE EATING?

You will be responsible for all of your own meals, and your accommodation will have facilities enabling you to do this, or you can take the opportunity to sample some of the city's abundant cafes and restaurants.

Argentina is well known for its good food, and in particular the fantastic local produce. You may like to venture out into the city and try some of the food on offer in local restaurants and market stalls. If you are a meat eater you might like to try a steak, which are world renowned! Buenos Aires certainly has a lot to offer the eager explorer, and the bustling street stalls and colourful markets beckon you to immerse yourself in this wonderfully diverse culture.

HOW WILL I GET TO WORK?

Based in Argentina's most exciting city, you will use public transport or walk your way around the streets, absorbing the sights and sounds of this Latin hub. Your local coordinators will be happy to help you master the public transport system and in no time you'll be making your way around like a porteno. Your journey to your work placement could take up to an hour but is all part of the cultural immersion you will enjoy while on your project, seeing everything through the eyes of a local.
